Nationals Grab Both Games From the Tigers

Johnson Negotiates His Sixteenth Victory—Dubuc Is Knocked Out of Box-Cashion Wild as a Hawk, but Lands on Top.

By WILLIAM PERT.

Our gallant Climbers polished off Jennings' Tigers in both numbers of the dual sketch yesterday, 8 to 1 and 6 to 4, capturing the final Detroit series in the Capital this season, three games out of four.

Walter Johnson snatched his sixteenth straight win, and now lacks three games of Rube Marquard's great record. Johnson had an easy same to pitch, for the reason that his pals compiled an early lead of our runs, knocking the famous Jean Dubuc out of the box in the hird inning. third inning.

Jay Carl Cashion twirled the second battle—some battle, too, be lieve us. Cashion only walked eight and uncorked three wild away from Deal on Kosher's pag. finant sitches, and yet he got away with his garne.

Joe Lake opposed the Carolina Curver and blew up in the eighth when the store was tied. Three markers counted for Washington, and it was all over. Eddie Foster and Dan Moeller rocked Dubue with home run drives in the hird luning of the first scrap, and when the human string, was on the mound. This bombardinent convinced Jensings that Dubue was of no further use to him the remainder of the day.

Ty Cobb in the final febite unloaded a home run, driving—she ball to the roof of the storage plant behind the right field fense. Sharp fielding by George McBride hiped smooth out the rough spots for Cashion, and that the Nationals were shie to get to Lake so effectively was die to a shift in the Tuper line-up, caused by the hunishment of Donle Bush in the fifth. Corridon was sent over to short stop, and let a couple of balls get away from him that would have been Johnson, I all the same on balls, and but for a high three-base in balls, and but for a high three-base in the same of the strict of the plate by McEride would have handed the visitors a shut-out.

The first eight balls Johnson pitchwere strikes.

Our star first sacker injured his hip slightly sliding into the plate on Shanke' grounder to Onslow, which the latter threw high to Stamme.

Bush robbed Johnson of a hingle in the fourth, making a great stop and throw on Walter's grantcutter.

Johnson stopped Cobb's steamer and hrew the Georgia wonder out to Gandil.

Deal got hold of a spithall which Mor-gan hit, and had to stop to wipe off his hand before he threw the ball. Shanks' triple went to nearly the same spot as Mosler's homer, but fast fielding by Cobb beld Howard at third.

McBride's catch of Cobb's offering, which looked good for a hit, was a beauty.

Wahoo Bam fanned for the second time in the eighth frame.

Deal made a pretty eatch of Morgan's foul fly in the eighth, sicking the ball off the stands.

The game ended in a fitting manner, McBride, Morgan and Gandii pulling a smaller play.
